

ArtLab is an active co-working office facility for visual artists and designers in the Greater Rochester area, to collaborate, innovate and work on artistic pieces and projects. The divergence of variou artistic fields will prompt a creative experimental laboratory to generate unique projects and products. The inclusion of the general public around ArtLab, will revitalize and re-purpose Eastview Mall, through the creativity of art and design.

